Relatives Refuse To Reveal Life Of Blast Victim

Shrouded in mystery which rivals the most secretive gang slaying by Chicago racketeers, the burning to death of "Tony" Giosso, 30, address unknown, was still baffling Richmond police this morning.

Demands by relatives that the body be turned over to them were unheeded by Coroner Aubrey Wilson as Richmond police, assisted by the sheriff's office, and Oakland police, were attempting to unravel the most mystifying case which has ever been presented to the police department of this city.

Giosso was brought to the Emergency hospital this morning in an automobile by two men. The man, horribly burned, was wrapped in a sheet, a tablecloth and a comforter. Patrolman George Reischneider, who was near the hospital when the injured man was brought there assisted in administering first aid and before he could ascertain their names the two men had returned to their car and driven away.

No Statement

Giosso without making a statement, died a "come" three days later at the Cottage hospital where he was removed after first aid treatment had been given him at the emergency hospital.

Relatives and friends interviewed on the heels and whole of the man were silent as though they feared the same hand which may have laid low Giosso might reach out and mete out a like fate to them.

Two men, Antonio Giosso, 1800 Pacific avenue, Alhambra, and P. P. P. 618 Front street, were held by police for further investigation following an all day grilling which failed to reveal any facts about the dead man. They were held after attempting to have the body of the dead man moved from the Wilson and Kratzer morgue.

Antonio Giosso, who states he is a cousin of the dead man, was unable to give any definite information as to his cousin's activities. He stated that Tony Giosso had bills and other mail delivered at his house but that he did not know where he made his home or what he did for a living. Most of the mail according to the man held here pertained to the purchase of an automobile. The car could not be located yesterday.

Woman Waits

A woman entered the case in the person of Dolly Cecony, 1159 Stanford avenue, Berkeley, who came to Richmond with Giosso and Piazza when they came here to identify and claim the body. While the two men went to the mortuary parlor the girl waited in their car which had been parked on Sixth street off Bissell. When told that the girl was in the car Capt. L. E. Jones of the police department went to question her but found that she was not there. Obtaining the Berkeley address he went there and interviewed the woman who stated that she had "become tired of waiting" and had returned to her home on the street car. According to Giosso she had been keeping steady company with the dead man. Although the girl as well as her parents was quizzed they were unable to give any information as to where the dead man worked or what his habits were.

Murder Probed

Another was that he had met a gracie death at the hands of some avenger who had placed something highly inflammable on the man while he was in an unconscious condition and ignited it. He appeared to have met his death while practically nude or only wearing light clothing. It also appeared as though the body had

FELON SLAIN IN BREAK TRY

STATE PENITENTIARY, Salem, Ore., Feb. 1. (UP)—Wilson B. Fish, with a prison record from Seattle to Los Angeles, was shot and killed by a guard tonight when the convict made a break for liberty. Fish was being transferred to a new cell when he broke from his guard, ran across the "bull pen" and climbed up a water pipe to the prison roof. He was running across the roof when a second guard stepped out of a tower and broke the convict's back with a single shot.

Fish had been in the penitentiary only two weeks. He was sentenced to 14 months on a larceny charge.

MRS. BORLAND ASKS DIVORCE

MARTINEZ, Feb. 1.—Cruelty and failure to provide are charged in a suit for divorce filed in superior court here today by Mrs. J. P. Borland against Milton Borland of Richmond. Mrs. Borland asks the custody of two minor children and $50 monthly for support.

Man Jailed For Molesting Wife

MARTINEZ, Feb. 1.—J. S. Sinclair, 60, Martinez salesman, today began serving a sentence of six months in jail on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon because he failed to heed an admonition of Justice of the Peace Frank Glass to remain away from his divorced wife and son.

Sinclair was arrested six weeks ago and agreed not to molest his former wife or go near her home. With this understanding the court withheld commitment on a six month sentence.

Mrs. Sinclair yesterday complained that the salesman had annoyed her several times since he was admonished by the court. The man was held before Judge Glass and the jail commitment was issued.

PINOLE, Feb. 1.—Six Pinole employees of the Union Oil company at Oleum escaped uninjured although the car in which they were riding overturned in a ditch near the Hercules junction of the state highway this morning. The machine was driven by Manuel Costa.

STEWART IN REPLY TO JOHN D.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1. (UP)—Col. Robert W. Stewart, replying to John D. Rockefeller, senior's statement in the fight between John D. Jr. and Stewart for control of the Standard Oil company, said today he believed the retired oil magnate had been "deliberately misinformed."

The elder Rockefeller issued a statement Thursday denying he had expressed himself in favor of the re-election of Col. Stewart as a director of the Standard Oil company and openly took the side of his son, who is opposing Stewart.

"It is evident that you have been misinformed in regard to the facts," Stewart said in a letter addressed to John D. Sr. at Ormond Beach, Fla. "I have never made any such statement either publicly or privately."

"The only statement in regard to yourself that I have ever made is that I would not believe you were opposing me for re-election until I have positive proof of that opposition."

S. O. EMPLOYE HURT IN FALL

Three ribs were fractured by E. H. Brown, Standard Oil employee, when he slipped and fell from a scaffolding on which he was working at the Richmond refinery Thursday, it was learned yesterday morning.

Brown was taken to the St. and Oil to hospital for treatment and later removed to his home, 1614 Fourteenth street, where he is under the care of physicians.

Record Martinez Property Sale

MARTINEZ, Feb. 1.—Sale of half interest in two business structures at Las Juntas and Main streets by Lewis and Mitchell, Oakland realty concern, to C. L. Phillips of Oakland, was disclosed today in the filing of deeds to the property. This consideration, which is said to have amounted to $100,000 makes the deal one of the largest in Martinez business property in recent years.

Both buildings are of brick construction. The price paid by Phillips for half interest fixes a valuation of $200,000 on the property, setting a new high record for property values in the business area. The sale price was made on the basis of seven percent return to the owner during the next ten years.

In disposing of their interests in the property, Lewis and Mitchell declared that they do not intend to abandon operations in this vicinity, but expect to become active again here in handling of properties.

4 ORPHANED BY HANGING

FRANKLIN, La., Feb. 1.—(UP)—Four children, ranging in ages from 19 to 21, orphaned through a murder and a legal execution, planned tonight to return to their home in Morgan City, La., where the body of their mother, Mrs. Ada Reimer Lehoucq, will be buried Saturday. The children, Liberty, 19, Herman, 11, Ernest, 19, and Joseph, 21, had stood by their mother, who with Dr. Thomas E. Dreher, was hanged 15 days for the murder of their father. Last night they had gone to Baton Rouge to speak to the governor in behalf of the condemned mother but he refused an audience.

"The law must take its course," Gov. Huey P. Long had said before the arrival of the children at the capital.

When the law had taken its course today, the innocent victims were the four who became orphans and went back to an empty home to continue their youthful lives without parental direction.

Martinez Masons Plan New Home

MARTINEZ, Feb. 1.—Negotiations for the purchase of a lot at Estudillo and Thompson streets were completed last night by the Masonic Temple association. The property was purchased from the Martinez lodge of Odd Fellows for a reported consideration of approximately $35,000.

Plans for a lodge hall to be erected on the site by the Masons are being prepared and will be submitted for approval within a short time. Plans originally called for the construction of a two-story building, the lower floor of which would contain stores, but this feature has been abandoned.

The Masons recently sold their property adjoining Alhambra creek to the city for park purposes with the understanding that the lodge will have the use of the present building for one year.

CLYDE HOTEL LEASED

MARTINEZ, Feb. 1.—The Hotel Clyde, located at Clyde has been leased by the Columbia steel company to house workmen who can not find lodgings in Pittsburg, according to an announcement made here today.

Groundhog To Hunt Shadow Here Today

The weather man has been besetted now weeks with an announcement of rain or a least heavy snow for today. For Feb. 2, if you know your primers, is the day Mr. Groundhog emerges from his nap, takes a squint at the sky and if the sun is gleaming, he decides it is time to do his spring house cleaning.

However if he finds his shadow on the ground, he decides to postpone his work and take a nap for six weeks longer, while it rains.

The weather man has promised to do his best to aid the groundhog in getting his spring cleaning done early. Rains are forecast for the day.

RANCHER HURT IN BOMB BLAST

ANTIOCH, Feb. 1.—Severe body burns were sustained by Albert Fredrickson, 19, Antioch district rancher, when the contents of a kerosene lamp which he was preparing to place a squirrel in exploded, burst, ignited and set fire to his clothing.

Prompt action on the part of John Vanzler, nearby rancher, probably prevented him from being fatally burned.

Fredrickson was taken to the Berkeley General hospital, where he is under treatment. Vanzler, who was assisting Fredrickson in his work, ripped the burning clothing from the man.

Paving Bids Asked For Pinole Highway

Theoretically the last move in the improvement of a wide highway from the Oakland city hall to the Carquinez bridge will be taken on Feb. 20 when Bert B. Meeks, director of the state department of public works, supervises opening of bids for the section of the road through the city of Pinole.

In announcing the opening of the bids yesterday Meeks announced that 2.11 miles of highway would be graded and paved through that city by the successful bidder.

With the opening of the highway through San Pablo several weeks ago where improvement work has been going on, the only bottleneck exists at Pinole. With the moving back of houses in that city to permit widening of the highway, the securing of a right of way and the approach of the Carquinez bridge should be completed by this summer.

Work on the widening and improvement work in San Pablo is practically completed with the exception of the curb which are being rapidly installed.

The calling of bids for the paving of the road through Pinole marks the culmination of a long hard battle to have the road straightened and improved in that section.

Tot Identifies Man As Killer Of Mother

OAKLAND, Feb. 1.—Identifying the man in the brown suit, Fortunado Lopez, 21, Seventh and Birch streets, is in the city jail while police are preparing to bring charges of murder against him.

Today Carlos Lopez, eight years old son of Mrs. Jovita Lopez, 26, a widow who was slain last night, identified Lopez as the man who visited his mother's home and gave him a nickel to buy candy. When the tot returned, he found his mother dead on the floor.

According to the police Lopez confessed to hitting the woman on the head with a bottle and then setting a bed across her body so that one leg was pressed down upon her face, stifling her cries. He said that she struck him with a bottle and they had a "fight."

The child, noted last Feb. 2, had been a frequent visitor at the home since Saturday. He declared that when he arrived home from school yesterday Lopez was at the house. They were not fighting, he said. Later, after dinner, he said, Lopez gave him money to go out and buy candy. When he returned, he found his mother dead.

Both boys were badly wounded. They were taken to a sectarian hospital for treatment.

$60,000 Asked In Peralta Ferry Death

OAKLAND, Feb. 1.—The Key System Transit company was named defendants in a $60,000 damages action filed here today as a result of the ferry Peralta accident in which Daniel Parker, candy maker, lost his life.

The suit was filed by Miss Mercedes Carballo, 1146 Haight street, San Francisco, fiancée of the dead man. Her plea is based on the grounds of lost affection, companionship and support of Parker.

The girl charges that she and Parker were about to be married when the accident occurred. She declared that she had purchased her trousseau and furnished an apartment which was to be their home.

Parker's body was recovered by fishermen off Point Pinole, near Albany several weeks after the accident which occurred when the ferry Peralta tipped its nose beneath the surface of the bay off Goat Island.

BRIBE WINT IN ANGLE PROBE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—(UP)—The name of the man who once claimed that he saw the aides of "Rose" and "Steve" abduct, Amice Simple McPherson from the beach at Ocean park, today was heard again in the legislative investigation of the evangelist's great adventure.

Arthur Veltch, an attorney, was questioned concerning H. C. Swift, self styled eye witness, who went to Angelus Temple in 1926 and offered to substantiate Mrs. McPherson's much battered story. Veltch said that Swift was dismissed when he became convinced that the Buckster's story was untrue.

May Probe Payment
Renewal of questioning concerning Swift was taken at a sign that the legislators would attempt to delve further into a $180 payment made Swift from Angelus temple's "legal and defense" fund.

It was from this same appropriation that Superior Judge Charles S. Hardy received a $2500 check and because of the check that the committee is sitting here. An attempt is being made to learn if Judge Hardy accepted the money in return for services which merit his impeachment.

"Brother" J. W. Arthur, temple auditor, who previously testified that Swift was a builder or who had worked on the temple and was given $150 in that connection, could not be located when he was wanted for further testimony today.

Judge "Yes Man"

Veltch described Judge Hardy as his "yes man" during the "kidnapping" investigation. He said the jurist did not offer many opinions but when informed of any plans always did a lot of "yesing."

The attorney said Mrs. McPherson had told her story to the 1926 grand jury to protect her good name and that of the temple.

He said that when Mrs. McPherson was first accused of being the companion of Kenneth G. Orniston in the love nest at Carmel-by-the-Sea, she agreed with him that it would be "tailor-made" for her to remain silent.

No action was taken against the three named evangelists immediately after she told her sensational "kidnapping" story before the

Following the dinner the Richmond pyramid of Sciot held a business session with A. C. Burdick, toparch presiding.

THE TROUBLE WITH THE HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION

Most of the difficulties in the heavyweight division of professional boxing can be traced to the fact that the authorities of the "game" are never as anxious to develop and crown the world's most splendid fighting machine as they are to discover one whose colorful style in and out of the ring can "pack 'em in" the ten dollar seats.

Jack Dempsey combined the qualities of a heavyweight champion with those of Bozo the Dog-faced Boy, and the thrill seekers madly forced their way past the clicking turnstiles at which they left enough dollars to build a railroad. Tunney was a better man than Dempsey at the times they met, hence deserved the title he took and defended but he lacked the fire and showmanship of the Manassa Mauler.

Out of what is left the heirs of Tex Rickard are trying to find a meal ticket for themselves and for the horde of hangers-on of the sport. Sharkey or Stribling might have the qualities, no one can tell until they are tried out. But the bally-hoo will be the factor that will decide. Not one in ten thousand can name the champions in all divisions, but the Poobah of the heavyweight section cannot stand for a title holder who will be obscure.

WHAT HOOVER HAS DONE

There will be no tangible or definite result from the tour of Central and South America which has been made by President-elect Hoover. Good will can be weighed and measured. Yet we strongly feel that through his visit to the Southern Hemisphere the President-elect has laid a foundation of mutual understanding that will be of advantage to his administration in the conduct of our relations with Latin-America during the next four years.

Whatever the force of the satiric thrusts which marked his triumphal progress from Honduras to Brazil, one thing cannot be gainsaid. His trip quickened our interest in Latin-America and also brought the United States before the people of these southern republics in a new guise. We were for once personified as a friendly guest rather than as the dread colossus of the north reaching out for new power and influence over weaker nations. Through Mr. Hoover North and South America met on equal terms.—New York Post.

A NAVY OR—LAW

Naval equality on the part of the United States is consequently a means, not of subjecting the United States to the risks of war, but of protecting itself against them. The construction of a navy equal to that of any belligerent likely to menace its neutral rights is the only safeguard that the United States can erect itself under existing conditions.

A single alternative, however, presents itself. The law of the seas can be recodified in such manner so that the rights of neutrals and for the obligations of belligerents in time of war could be made unmistakably clear. Were this done, the motives responsible for much of present day rivalry would be removed and the cause of international peace constructively forwarded. The recodification of maritime law already has able advocates in the United States.

Were it accomplished more would be done for the cause of peace than by a hundred treaties for the renunciation of war which, although they express the idealism of peace, contribute nothing to a realistic solution of the problem that it presents.—Springfield Union.

An Iowa professor is trying to train an oyster. If he can get it to sing and dance, his teaching days will be over.—Pittsburgh Post Gazette.

Of course there will be several women in the next congress but we doubt whether they can increase the amount of conversation to any appreciable extent.

BEAUTY

Dear Miss Lane,

Do you advise the use of borax by blondes in shampooing the hair to keep it light? I have been using it, hoping to keep my hair the same color, but I have heard that it isn't good for the hair.

A little borax used occasionally won't do any serious damage to your hair, but if you use it too frequently it may make the hair dry and brittle.

Shampoo your hair with the current of soap and cold water, massage the scalp for five minutes daily, and remember to brush it thoroughly once a day and you won't have to worry about the condition of your hair. Don't forget it for too long to direct sunlight as this tends to dry and bleach the hair.

Dear Miss Lane,

My little girl who is thirteen has hair that is rather dry. It isn't a serious condition yet but I would like to remedy it while she's so young. What would you suggest?

MOTHER,
The night before you wash her hair, rub over the entire scalp with cotton soaked in olive oil (olive or sweet oil are also effective). Allow this to remain over night and be sure to wash it all out in the shampoo. Teach her the importance of brushing her hair vigorously every night before she goes to bed and the value of a clean brush and comb.

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically on the system without the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

"Oh, it musta dropped in there," Audrey sighed. "When do we get everything straight?"

"Hey, sis, can I take my baseball bat?" Phil asked.

"You can't carry it," Fanny told him. "If you're going to take Hickey, you'll have all you can carry." Tom! The Coffee! Fanny ran to the kitchen and pulled the pot off the flames where it was merrily bubbling over.

HOOVER, SMOOT TO DISCUSS TARIFF

LONG KEY, Fla., Feb. 1.—UP—President elect Hoover will tackle one of the outstanding problems that faces him at the outset of his administration—tariff revision when he returns to Miami Beach from his fishing expedition.

He will go over the subject thoroughly with Senator Smoot of Utah, chairman of the Senate Finance committee, who arrives Sunday to be a guest at the Penney home with the Hoovers.

Smoot will have charge of tariff legislation in the senate, the president elect is concerned with the tariff section of his inaugural speech, which he now is writing, and thereafter with handling of the tariff by the special session of congress, which he will call about April 15.

May Prolong Session
Hoover's plan is to restrict tariff legislation at the special session to changes in rates on agricultural products, means of protection to the farmers which are of his general relief program, and to "adjustments" of certain industrial rates which are considered necessary to aid business interests. He is anxious to avoid a reopening of the tariff along all fronts, which he feels would create confusion and disturb business and which certainly would prolong the extra session far beyond his plans.

Republican leaders favor the restriction and will seek to effect it in every way possible. They fear, however, that democrats will attempt to carry tariff revision beyond the scope desired by Hoover.

House "Well in Hand"
House republican leaders have situation there well in hand, with a comfortable majority, but senate democrats, allied with western republicans, might be able to thwart the aims of senate republican leaders. It is this possibility which Hoover will discuss with Smoot, who is a veteran in legislative practice and knows the present lineup and the temper of democratic leaders.

Technically, the tariff will be open to revision along the whole line, as the bill presented by the Ways and Means committee will be the Fordney-McCumber tariff act of 1922, with the changes the committee has made in some rates. Even in the house there is chance of protracted consideration through offering of amendments, unless a rule is clamped down to prevent all but committee amendments, which may be done.

rested for some time with the feet closest to the flames.

The residence of all friends and relatives to talk about the case led authorities to the conclusion that foul play figured in the burning of the man.

Antonio Glosso is listed that he knew nothing whatever about the man's habits or where he made his home, other than that his mail was delivered to his home, and that occasionally he had visited him at his flower stand, 453 Twelfth street, Oakland.

Just a Hunch
Glosso and Piazza both insisted that they had come to Richmond when they saw a story in an Oakland paper which told of the unidentified man. Neither was able to explain just how they connected up the case with the man they later identified, other than that they "just had a hunch it might be him."

According to attendants at the hospital, Glosso during some of his conscious moments mentioned the name Antonio Glosso and something about gasoline and smoking.

The fact that the explosion or burning may have occurred anywhere within a 50 mile radius of Richmond made the case more baffling. E. C. Poyemore, patrolman reported yesterday that he had seen a flash as though of an explosion in the Grand Canyon district. Although the hills and canyon were thoroughly scoured by officers yesterday they were unable to find any traces of an explosion or fire. Others including Sam Hurd, Key employee, also reported having seen the flash at approximately 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

Marks Removed
The clothing in which the man was wrapped when brought to the hospital was found to have several cockleburrs stuck to it when examined last night indicating that the accident might have occurred in the open. The sheet of the usual bed size was torn down the center, a lay-nder "D" had been crocheted in one corner and the opposite corner had been cut away with scissors as though to remove a laundry mark or some other mark of identification. The corner was ripped as though an attempt had been made to tear it with the hands before the scissors were used. The table cloth was a home made affair and appeared to have been fashioned out of flour sacks. It was stained with what appeared to be wine. The comforter was of a small size with a design in brown and red. These were the only articles left at the hospital as Glosso wore no clothing when brought there.

An autolod of countrymen of Glosso who stopped at the Cottage hospital shortly before the man died were also being sought today. After stopping at the hospital as though to get out, the light sedan sped away when a car carrying several policemen drew up in front of the hospital.

BOY 13 TALLEST YOUTH IN WORLD

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 1.—UP—How would you like to be thirteen again?—but seven feet two inches tall?

That is the age and height of Henry Mullins of Atlanta. He hopes to be a football star at Georgia Tech some day.

Doctors say the trouble—if it can be called that—is caused by over activity of the youth's pituitary gland, a ductless organ below the brain. Such overactivity causes the rise of most giants.

Henry Mullins is in the seventh grade in school. His report card is usually worth showing to his father and mother. A's and B's are his grades. On top of that he is a good golf player. He goes around in the 80's and some of his drives are 250 yards.

Henry doesn't look toward golf for successes however. "All the club handles are too short anyway. I want to be a boxer and a football player, but I can't find anybody to box with me," he said.

Henry's shoes are size 14. The rest of his attire is in proportion.

He plays end on the high school football team, center on the basketball team. He drops some baskets in without poking his hand up over his head. He played first base in baseball, and was utility man on the mound. Henry is a wow in sports.

C. E. Mullins, a six-footer, brother of the young giant, claims his big brother gets only about as much as the average thirteen-year boy eats. "Only it goes farther."

If Henry keeps on growing and he doesn't want to—he will, by averages with normally-sized humans—leap into a world's record. However, doctors are going to give some treatments to that little pituitary gland.

grand jury, but later the district attorney's office pressed charges of conspiracy to defeat justice.

"Believes Story"
In response to a question Veitch said that at the time he believed the grand jury investigation was made not only for the purpose of surveying Mrs. McPherson's story, but in the hope that the real "kidnapers" would be apprehended.

Veitch admitted that even though he was Mrs. McPherson's attorney almost the only evidence he had to support the "kidnaping" report was her own story.

"Well, I had physical evidence," he replied to a question.

"I knew she had been found in Douglas and that her appearance indicated that she had been through a severe strain."

REV. BULGIN IN SERMON ON LAWS

"The ten commandments are God's looking glass, to show how dirty you are." This was the statement made before a packed audience at the First Presbyterian church last night by Rev. E. J. Bulgin, evangelist.

Rev. Bulgin's sermon for the night dealt with the ten commandments. His talk was entitled "God's Measurement of Man."

Dr. Bulgin said in part: "You will find the words of my text tonight in Galatians 3:10 and in James 2:10, the two together because they belong together. My subject is 'God's Measurement of Man.'"

St. Paul's epistle to the Galatians said: "Cursed is everyone that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of law to do them." James 2:10, says: "For whosoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

No Good Moral Characters
"I am prepared to agree with the man that so long as a man has a good moral character it is all God does, ask or can ask of him. But what is moral character?" Before Adam fell he was a good moral character. God made him an ideal man, made him in His own image and as long as Adam was without sin he had a good moral character. But after Adam deliberately committed sin with his eyes open there never was a good moral character any more throughout the long list of patriarchs and judges and rulers and prophets. God's eye never rested on a man of good moral character until we open John's gospel.

"If you can measure up with Adam before he fell and no sin has ever tainted your garments in thought, word or deed, you have never done anything wrong and in God's sight you have a good moral character. But if you have ever sinned once that one sin is enough to damn your soul, because one sin is an indication that the fountain from which that one sin has come has many more sins. With God it is not a question of how many sins, but as to the enormity of the sin. One match in a powder magazine will do as much damage as a bushel of fire."

God's Yardstick
"Now I am going to put before you some of God's yardsticks tonight. The first yardstick is the first commandment: 'Thou shalt have no other Gods before me.' If I affirm God is the Jehovah, the God that always was, now is and always will be, has He not a right to forbid anybody from having any other God? Why? Because any other God would be a counterfeited."

"The biggest sin in the world is to break the biggest commandment—love the Lord thy God with all thy heart. What is the biggest sin? To break that biggest commandment, and not to love God with all thy heart. The sin of unbelief is a bigger sin than stealing a horse. Why? Because it is a sin that sticks a dagger into the very heart of the remedy that God has provided for all the rest of your sins."

"In the second commandment, God forbade idolatry, because the man who makes the thing to represent Deity will rise no higher to the Deity than the thing he says should represent Deity. There has never been anything in this world adequate to represent God except Jesus Christ."

"The third commandment simply is you shall not curse. That is the short of it. 'Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God, in vain. Any man who ever cursed is not fit to go to Heaven. The evils of a godless tongue have brought more misery in the world than nearly anything else."

"The ten commandments are God's looking glass, to show you how dirty you are."

Dr. Bulgin will speak on the subject "Sweethearts" Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

TOTUAVA FISH INDUSTRY GROWS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—An exciting in the extreme is the story of the development of the totuava fishing industry on the coast of lower California, at the towns of San Felipe and Santa Clara.

This story, which shows that in a short space of four years this industry has grown from nothing to a catch of 1,828,000 lbs., is told in a recent number of the "California Fish and Game," the quarterly issued by the Division of Fish and Game.

George Roger Chute, who is attached to the California state fisheries laboratory at terminal island, which is operated by the bureau of commercial fisheries of the division, has made an exhaustive investigation and tells his story in a highly interesting way.

Chute explains how many years ago it was discovered that the swim bladders of these man-sized fish were very valuable to the Chinese and the industry was begun with only these bladders being taken from the fish, packed in barrels and shipped to China.

No attempt was made to use the flesh of these fine fish. However, Chute explains how two intrepid truck operators from Calexico battled through the sun baked desert from Imperial valley to San Felipe and purchased the fish for five cents a hundred pounds.

The two worked their way back to Calexico with difficulty, and found a ready sale for the fish. Thus the industry developed until now refrigerated trucks wait at the border for the fleet of lighter trucks that rush the totuava to them. Here they are iced and hauled to San Pedro. It has been found that the fish is superior in food value and considered in high esteem by many as a delicacy.

Copies of "California Fish and Game," in which this complete story of the development of this industry in such a romantic fashion has been accomplished in such a short time, appears, can be had by addressing the division of fish and game at San Francisco.

LYNCH TAKES BOUT FROM BROWN

California Joe Lynch last night outfought and outboxed Mickey Brown of Richmond to take a 10 round decision at the El Cerrito Athletic club. Lynch had the battle from the start until the last going sounded. It was a case of too much experience over youth.

At that, Mickey put up a good battle. One Jackie Roberts of San Francisco was given a technical kayo over George Mahler of New York in the third round of their scheduled six round bout. At the end of the third canto Mahler's seconds threw in the time honored towel.

William Cather, substituting for Johnny Farr, took a four-round decision over Sammy Rice, substituting for Baby Face Ketchell in the special event. This would have been a good fight if the third party in the ring had given the decision where it belonged. As it were, the rafters creaked with the hooting of the fans.

The best fight of the evening was between Doc Limas of Berkeley and Eddie Daniels of Oakland. The boys started off the first round to the tune of the "Merry Widow" waltz. About this time Jack Hogan, the French referee stepped up and told "dese guys" to either fight or he'd take them over his knee.

From then on the boys fought as if their lives depended upon the outcome of the brawl. It was fast and it was hard. Slugging predominated and the fans got an eyeful. When the last bell sounded, Hogan held up Limas' hand. Lawrence Gifford, who substituted for Frankie Loveland, opened the show by sending Kid Paya to the canvas in the first few seconds of the first round. It was a fast opener for the show.

HIGH QUINTETS LOSE TO SAINTS

The Richmond high school 130 pound and varsity basketball squads lost to the St. Mary's Frosh and 145 pound teams last night at the Richmond high school gymnasium. The varsity team lost by a score of 32 to 19 and the 130 pound team was defeated 39 to 25.

Hall and Viano made four points each to be high men for the locals. Callan was high man for the Saints with 12 points.

Linstead was high man for the 130 pound team with 11 points and Maher starred for the Saints 145's with 18 points.

The lineups were as follows: FIRST GAME SAINTS (32) Callan 12, Wiggins, Mulgrew 10, Gardner, forwards; Millerville 6, center; Preston, Curran, Muzzoni, Ponti 2, guards.

VARSIITY (19) Hall 4, Viano 4, Page 2, Weeks 2, forwards; Gordon, McCane, center; Lane 2, Taylor, O'Connell 3, Carson, guards.

SECOND GAME SAINTS (39) Wiggins 5, Maher 18, forwards; Chamberlaine 7, center; Saxe 4, Curran, 4, Mazzoni 2, guards.

DUTCH INDIES VOLCANO IN ACTION

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 1.—UP—Krakatoa, which killed more than 35,000 persons in an eruption in 1883, is in violent action again, according to advices received to night from Batavia, in the Dutch East Indies.

The volcanic island at present is averaging more than 1,000 small eruptions a day; the advices said, hurling ashes and pumice nearly a mile into the air at times. One new crater has been formed about 800 feet in diameter.

Heavy earthquake shocks were recorded at Mendocino on the California coast today.

Krakatoa is a small volcanic island in the Sunda straits, between Java and Sumatra. It has often been in violent eruption.

In August, 1883, the most terrific of all Krakatoa eruptions was recorded. It was estimated that the eruption took the lives of almost 36,000 persons in two days. The sound of the eruption was heard as far as Rodriguez, nearly 8,000 miles away. A great column of stones and dust was thrown miles into the air and the sky at Bandung, 150 miles away, was darkened with fine ashes.

Tidal waves reached a height of 50 feet, destroying whole villages on the islands. The ashes were carried by the winds over thousands of square miles.

TELEVISION TO AID BRITISH POLICE

LONDON, Feb. 1.—UP—"Set a new-length to crack a crime." This may become the slogan of Scotland Yard with the increasing use of wireless in the work of the Criminal Investigation department.

Already London police officials may wireless finger-prints, by code to New York or Australia and receive a reply within 48 hours. Scotland Yard is now planning to link the principal police stations of Great Britain by wireless. This will remove the difficulty of instant communication with county police officials. It is estimated that the new system will save three hours time in communicating with Glasgow or Edinburgh.

Receiving and transmitting sets will be installed in London's 200 police stations. Major Vittle, Scotland Yard's chief engineer, has prepared a code for C. I. D. messages equipped with wireless and a car running at full speed through a London street recently communicated with the police of Preston, Lancashire, 198 miles away. When the hook-up of all police stations is completed, police headquarters can maintain constant communication with the entire British Empire.

Carl Hardy and Hugo DePear wrestled a draw in the first wrestling match of the night. The second bout Kuleschuff defeated Jack Pallok in two falls.

Nystrom and Dwight Gribbons fought a fast eight round boxing match. No decision was given.

The program was concluded with an exhibition of work on bars and mats, featuring William Moeller, a one-legged athlete.

Lewis and Adams led the program with a demonstration of fencing. The two are members of the college fencing team and their match was instructive and entertaining.

ARMY OFFICER CITY TO HAVE TELLS OF SOUTH

A talk on Nicaragua and conditions there was presented before the members of the Richmond Rotary club yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Carmichael by Maj. Gen. C. A. Hunt, U. S. A., retired. General Hunt was seen to the southern republic as a civilian inspector at the request of rival political forces in Nicaragua to supervise the election of a new president.

The speaker declared that the Americans in charge of the election had to institute an entirely new election system under a foreign tongue among a people who were used to a free and easy mode of electing presidents. The Americans registered 150,000 voters, divided the nation into precincts, got out a great register and ballots and finally marked each vote at the election to prevent "stealing."

General Hunt lauded the white race in Nicaragua, declaring that they are the finest people that he has ever met in 10 years of extensive traveling. He also lauded the work of the United States Marine Corp. in bringing a semblance of peace to the struggling country.

Fire Chief William P. Cooper was chairman of the day. Dr. L. H. Fraser rendered several vocal selections.

CITY TO HAVE NATURAL GAS BY AUG. 1

Natural gas will be in the San Francisco Bay area by Aug. 1. This was the announcement made yesterday by A. P. Hocke, chairman, president of the Pacific Gas and Electric company. He had just negotiated a contract for laying the first section of a gas pipeline which will bring gas from the San Joaquin Valley oil fields to San Francisco, San Jose, Oakland and adjacent territory. Over 13 million dollars will be invested in the enterprise.

The main pipe line will be 250 miles long. Pipes for the first 60 miles have already been manufactured by the A. O. Smith Corporation in Milwaukee and is now en route to California in train loads running at express speed. A wire from the Smith corporation yesterday read:

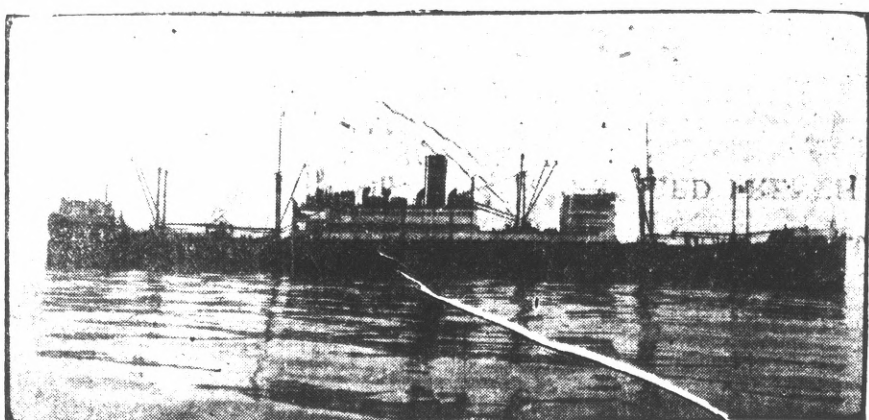

"One hundred and thirty-two car of pipe, making two solid train loads of sixty-six cars each, left Monday morning with double header engines, carrying the banner 'California here we come.'"

The first train load will arrive in Oakland on Sunday and will be at once routed to Tres Pinos in San Benito county where workmen and ditching machines will be waiting for it. A train load will follow every day thereafter until the full shipment has been completed.

Work on the first section of the pipe line, will begin at Tres Pinos on Monday morning, the ditching crews working east through the Pancho Pass into Fresno county at the rate of two miles a day.

Plans for the pipe line for a 16 inch main from the Butte-willow gasfields near Taft in Kern county to Kettleman Hills California's latest and perhaps largest gas field. From Kettleman the line will be 22 inches in diameter to Mendota in Fresno county. At that point it will reduce to 20 inches and will run west through Pancho Pass to Tres Pinos and then run by way of Hollister, Gilroy and San Jose to Milpitas. At Milpitas a metering station will be established from which two branches will take off, one to San Francisco and the other to Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond.

Welded Pipe
The entire line will be welded throughout and will form practically a continuous tube without joints from the oil fields to the Bay area making leakage almost impossible. The pipe for the branch from Milpitas to Oakland will be manufactured at the plant of the Western Pipe and Steel company in South San Francisco.

Pneumo will be supplied through an eight inch branch, which will leave the main line at Huron and run 40 miles across the floor of the San Joaquin valley, including this branch and the branch from Milpitas to Oakland, the total amount of pipe to be laid will be 252 miles and will fill more than 1800 cars or 20 trains of 60 cars each.

A new gas holder of ten million cubic feet capacity will be erected in San Francisco and one of eight million cubic feet in Oakland, increasing storage facilities in the two cities to more than 60 million cubic feet.

Gas at High Pressure
Gas will be delivered to the pipeline in the Butte-willow and Kettleman fields at a pressure of 100 pounds. This pressure will be reduced en route so that the gas will arrive in San Francisco and Oakland at a pressure of 50 pounds. Long term contracts already made assure an ample supply of gas for a term of years. It is expected that use will increase rapidly. As soon as the demand warrants a large compressor plant will be erected near the Kettleman Hills to add to the supply. Later a booster station will be constructed between Kettleman Hills and San Jose, which will give the line an ultimate capacity of at least 125 million cubic feet per day.

Experts predict that the Kettleman Hills will prove the greatest gas field yet discovered in California. Several thousand acres have already been proven and one well alone, owned by the Milham Exploration company, produces something like 45 million cubic feet of gas per day. Fifteen additional wells are being drilled in the Kettleman field by the Standard Oil of Ohio Oil, the General Petroleum company and others. In the Butte-willow field seven wells have already been drilled and capped awaiting completion of the pipe line.

To Aid Cities
"This understanding," said President Hocke yesterday, "will prove the greatest contribution of this generation to the growth and development of the Bay region. Natural gas is a cheap and efficient fuel which will not only attract new industries but keep old ones here. Only today we learned that a large factory in Oakland, a branch of a nationwide corporation, was considering removing to Southern California in order to have the advantage of natural gas for fuel. Our assurance that natural gas would be here in August changed the plan. The factory will remain in Oakland."

"Natural gas is not only a cheap fuel but it is adaptable and convenient. Industries can use it with a minimum of labor. In our own case we expect to use large amounts in our steam electric generating stations in San Francisco and Oakland including the large new steam plant about to be constructed in San Francisco."

"While household consumers will be served a mixture of natural and artificial gas, large industries located close to the pipe lines which will pass through the principal industrial areas will be supplied with straight natural gas. Unusually low rates will be available to industries that can use gas at night and between times when there is not a great demand for household purposes, like heating and cooking. They will be able to get what we call an off-peak rate. Industry of all kinds should be greatly stimulated by this rate and this service. In fact nothing better has been done to stimulate industrial growth since the Nineties when large blocks of hydro electric power were brought into the Bay area."

Users To Profit
"Domestic consumers will also profit. Natural gas has greater heating value than artificial gas, and the mixed gas we propose to serve to domestic consumers will contain 700 heating units as against 550 carried by the artificial gas now being distributed. With increased heating values and, with rate adjustments we propose to make, consumers in the Bay area will save $3,000,000 a year in their gas bills."

"Introduction of natural gas into northern California will do much to conserve a natural resource. Gas escaping from wells is wasted. It cannot be stored except in limited quantities and at great expense and wherever used is made of it, waste is saved and oil and other fuels conserved."

"The undertaking, however, is not without its risks. The pipe line we are building is one of the longest in the country and requires a very heavy investment. Moreover, we cannot see beneath the ground. But experts assure us that there is an ample supply of gas and on that assurance we are going ahead with the project—an investment of at least $13,000,000 and are rushing forward one of the biggest undertakings in northern California in many years."

Local Musician Named Assistant Of S. F. Teacher

Appointment of Turner Brashear, local violinist, as assistant instructor in the studio of August Hinrichs has come as recognition for his ability as a musician. August Hinrichs is one of the leading violin masters of the coast.

Brashear has devoted a number of years to violin study and is one of the city's most distinguished musicians. He studied a year under Arthur Conrad of the San Francisco Institute of Music and a year under Cornelius Berling. He has been a pupil of Hinrichs for the past four years.

Brashear has appeared in a number of musical functions here and also gives violin instructions to several local children.

DR. HINKLEY TO HEAD SCOUT DRIVE HERE

Dr. A. B. Hinkley has been named as chairman of the annual fund drive for the Richmond Boy Scouts, according to an announcement made yesterday. Dr. Hinkley will be assisted by E. M. Downer, A. C. Faris, L. M. Johnson, J. A. Bell and A. Purser who will act as "majors" in the campaign. The majors will appoint five captains and each of the latter will direct activities of five workers, according to plans laid.

The Richmond Scouts are seeking to raise $5600 as a part of the local and county drive, according to Cox.
